

CONTENTS

Duloz Combination Frankings
 Otto Graf 67

Turkish Language Reform Cachet
 Philip Longbottom 70

Austrian Jerusalem Postmark 71.

Japanese Holyland Post Cards
 Elliot Mitchnick 73

Browsing the Web : 73
 OPAL website
 Libyan Philately
 Turkey on Wikipedia

Postcard with Battleship
 Chuck Maki 74

Book Review, Bob Stuchell 75
 Wolf Dinslage. *The History and Postal
 History of the Town of Smyrna*

OBITUARIES 75
 Anthony P. Fraser 1942 - 2007
 Diane Boehert 1927 - 2008

Q & A – Carl Catherman 77
 Talismanic Writing

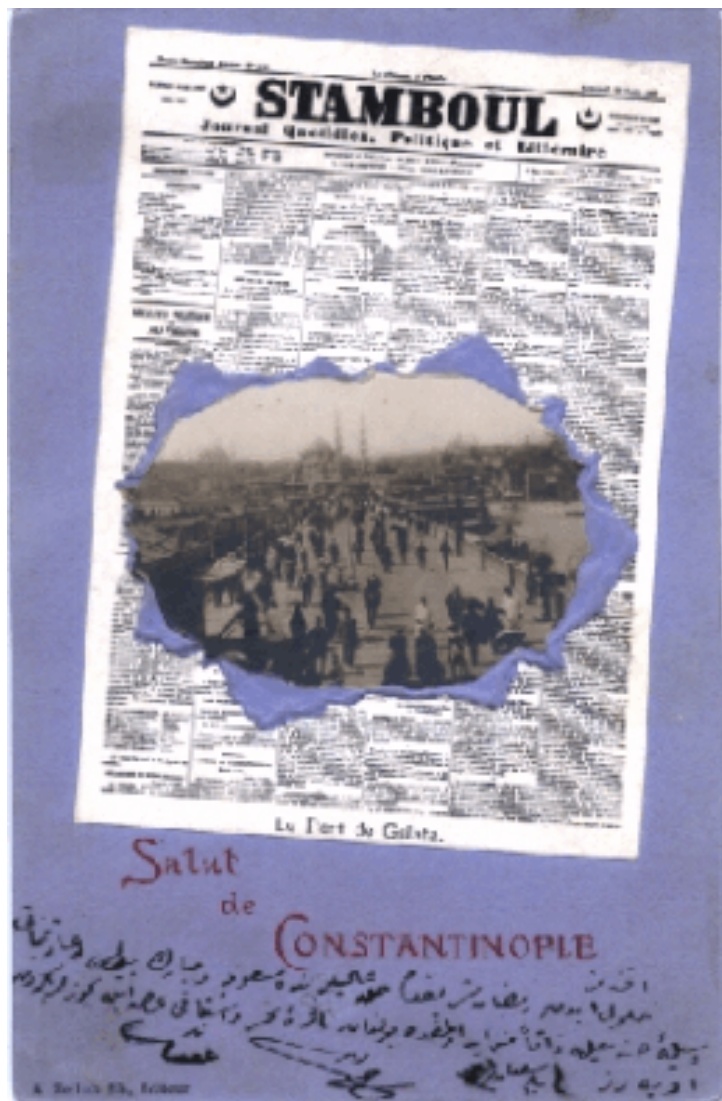

Two types of Imprimé handstamps?
 Richard Rose 78

Annual General Meeting at the APS

STAMPSHOW Hartford, Connecticut

I hope to see as many members as possible at our annual meeting at the APS Summer Show in Hartford. The meeting will be on Saturday, August 16, in the afternoon. We expect to know the exact time and room designation by late May or early June and this information will be posted on our website when available. Robert Stuchell President

ERRATUM: “Duloz Exhibit” by Radak Cerny (The Levant 4:4, Jan. 2008). On p. 57, Fig. 3, the cover is indicated as traveling from Aleppo to Uskudar, but a correct reading shows it was sent to Iskan-derun. The sender was the de Picciotto, a Sephardic Jewish family from Aleppo, well-known bankers and traders; I know many of them. My family is also originally from Aleppo. Lucien Toutounji.

The Editor welcomes picture cards from readers, and plans to feature especially those with some story attached to them. Send your submissions to the Editor. This issue’s card come from Chuck Maki, with an ingenious and stunning design of a photograph of the city of Istanbul inside a newspaper. See inside cover for the address side of Mr. Maki’s card. Also on the same page is a post card picture of the German P.O. in Istanbul.